Based off of the Scotch Genre, Century Roman is a font designed by both father and son. The original for, Century Roman, Design was created by Linn Boyd Bentonn in 1894. Then Cenury Roman was redesigned by his son Morris Fuller Benton into simple Century. Century is a modern Serif typeface designed for usage in the body text structures for quick legibility. Its design elaborates on crispness, clean and elegance. It contains strokes of ending in fine tapers, ball terminals and finely pointed serifs. Over a 10 year span, 4 typefaces were designed to create the Century type family and those were Century Expanded, Italic + Bold, Bold Condensed and Extended.
